

I think the rules should support the public rather than the private interest. I am opposed to the consolidation of the media as is being proposed.